

MAINE LABORATORIES

A cutting edge PFAS testing facility in Central Maine
PFAS Testing is the first step in finding a solution

Maine Laboratories tests samples at all levels of the PFAS life cycle:

1. Manufacturing products, industrial run off, and consumer goods
2. Landfill leachate and wastewater influent
3. Wastewater effluent and post treatment analysis
4. Environmental samples from waterways, soil, wildlife, fish, marine mammals
5. Agricultural samples including feedstock, milk, meat, produce
6. Drinking water
7. Well water, drinking water, soil, validation of treatment systems

Maine Laboratories partners with:

Research community
Farmers
Homeowners
State agencies
Small Businesses
Water Districts
Sanitary Districts
Homebuyers
Inspectors
Remediation Companies

PFAS Testing Capacity:

Current State: 4000 tests per year
Phase II: Doubling current capacity in Norridgewock to 8000 tests per year

Team Assets:

- SBA Certified Women owned small business (EDWOSB)
- PhD Analytical Chemist and PhD Biochemist method development team
- Lab Technical Director with 12 years experience in method development, advanced lab certification, and professional report writing

MAINE LABORATORIES
www.mainelaboratories.com
25 Main St
Norridgewock ME 04957